HUDSON BAY IS OPEN FOR TEN MONTHS OF THE YEAR

James H. Green, Lately Returned From North, Tells of Prospects

ARE GREAT POSSIBILITIES

No Reason Why Navigation Should Not Continue There all Year Round, He Says

Mr J. H. Green, of Winnipeg, formerly of Brockville, Ont., has returned from Fort McMurray, who is a Capital reporter at the office of the Immigration Hall, in conversation with the agent, Mr. Webster, he was very reticent about the Athabasca district as he has been prospecting in the interests of a company. He left McMurray on Aug. 8th, and arrived in Edmonton last night. Their boat was wrecked in the Boiler Islands, where he lost everything but the clothes he was wearing. He was much more inclined to talk to the Hudson Bay on whose shores he spent two years. Asked as to the Hudson Bay Railroad, he said:

"The Hudson Bay Railroad is one of the best things for the Western country that ever happened. I am satisfied that instead of four months navigation there will be twelve months. There are only two months in the year when there is any possible chance of misfortune. That is the storm season when the water splashes on the vessels and freezes. Still it requires 13 degrees more to freeze salt water than fresh and the ice formed from it melts at 13 degrees below freezing point."

With regard to the harbor at Fort Nelson River I would explain that the Nelson River drains more country than almost any other river in the world. It has been straightened from the summit of the Rockies to Hudson Bay, and includes Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, North Dakota, Minnesota, Western Ontario, and Keewatin. The capacity of its flow at the mouth of the river is 200,000 gallons of water per second. The width at the mouth is 25 miles and the channel here has been open continuously for at least 200 years for twenty miles from the sea. In 1908 the Nelson was open all winter as the Saskatchewan here to day. In cold winters the ice forms along the shores from the 2nd December to the 1st January, and goes out later than the fifth May.

"Engineer Fry sounded the channel of the harbor in the latter part of March and April when the ice was strongest, and had to do his work on ice only 4 to 8 inches thick and sometimes in open water. Consequently he was compelled to employ the most experienced Indians for the work, for canoes had to be dragged over the ice for safety. According to his report there were ten fathoms of water in the channel of the harbor, sufficient to accommodate the deepest draught vessels that sail the northern sea, and that the depth bears well to the shores. It has been stated that shifting sand shoals were the great obstacle to navigation but such is not the case, as the bottom is as hard as blue clay, and as favorable as can be found in any river in the world; moreover the harbor is large enough to accommodate at least 40 to 50 vessels. Another great advantage is that the harbor is well sheltered by the high ground and the forests.

The Churchill Harbor has few advantages in comparison. At the time the ice forms the water in the river is very low, and when the tide goes out the ice is filled with air underneath; when the tide comes in with the float ice it forces the air and large portions of float ice out through the air holes and sometimes a pile 12 or 15 feet high is raised. When frost strikes these air holes the split ice becomes sharp and when storms come down off thousands of miles of barren lands fills these rough icebergs, and they freeze very hard.

"In February high tides begin, and they continue to rise till May. They saturate the snow and ice, which freezes in one solid mass 10 to 12 feet deep. So the ice does not leave the harbor till the 18th or 20th of June. Icebergs continue to flow into the

FOUND CHINAMAN'S BODY

Body of Celestial Who Suicided Found Near Spur of Chinaman's

The body of the Chinaman, who committed suicide several weeks ago, by wading into the river near the Saskatchewan River bridge, was found yesterday afternoon, in a badly decomposed state by Alexander Davidson, an employee at Fraser's Mill, Davidson was walking along the bank when his attention was drawn to something in the water which looked like a corpse. With the aid of a pole he managed to bring the body to the shore, afterwards summoning Coroner Brathwaite & McKinley's ambulance.

Coroner Brathwaite was also notified and an inquest was held last night at Connolly and McKinley's undertakers' parlors, and after the evidence of those who had witnessed the suicide was taken, the jury brought in a verdict that the deceased drowned himself.

The deceased Chinaman had been in the city but a few days, and the remains were identified by another Chinaman Wong Fun.

FOREIGN MAID ATE BATH TABLETS; ILL

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 3.—Mary Rojek, a young Polish girl employed by wealthy east end family is dangerously ill, the result of eating bath tablets.

Mary has been in the country only a few months, and in that time has been solving the intricacies of the American lady's toilet. Saturday she purchased some lath perfume tablets. Before retiring at night she stepped into the bath tub and then swallowed two of the tablets.

Several hours later the family hurriedly called a physician for the girl.

The Department of Agriculture for Alberta will exhibit at Spokane, and possibly other States fairs this fall.

SYNDICATE AVE. MURDER IS A BLANK WALL OF MYSTERY

Local Police Are Completely Puzzled, But "We're Not to Blame," Says Chief

HARD TO GET EVIDENCE

Foreigners Fear the Blue Coats Won't Give Them Any Information

Although the police are straining every effort to apprehend the murderer or murderers, responsible for the death of Roman Fedenik, the Galician who met with foul play about two weeks ago at the corner of Syndicate Avenue and the railway tracks, there has been in the last few days quite a lot of unmerited criticism of the police, in that they have not, as far as is known, discovered anything that would lead to the detection of those implicated.

Chief Laney stated to a Capital reporter this morning that the city detectives have been working night and day on the case ever since the body of the unfortunate foreigner was discovered, but that they have not yet been able to account for the man's movements after four o'clock on the day he met his death.

To further their efforts to unravel the mystery, the police have called in experts, a cosmopolitan force which is thoroughly acquainted with the Galician language, and in fact, this man has been assisting the police ever since the crime was discovered and has been of great value.

The detectives have not yet been

M. H. O. TO CONVENTION

Dr. Whitelaw Leaves for Milwaukee for Health Conference

Dr. T. H. Whitelaw, medical health officer, has left for Milwaukee to attend the annual convention of the American health association to be held there. After the convention Dr. Whitelaw will visit Toronto and other eastern points. In his absence Dr. Park, a member of the board of health, will act as medical health officer.

MINNESOTA INDIANS ARE PASSIVE RESISTERS

Government Tries to Get Them to Move From Reserve But They Are Obstinate

White Earth, Minn., Sept. 3.—After years of negotiation, two hundred Chippewa families refuse to leave Millie La's reserve for another location. While the Indians and the government are under the necessity of using force to move the Indians or to make another treaty with them. The interior department has been using every inducement in vain. Commissioner Hall having vainly exercised his influence for some weeks, but the aborigines are obstinate, although their lands have been signed away.

ENGLAND MAY SEE LABOR STRUGGLE

Fight Between Labor and Capital of All Railways Is Breeding

London, Sept. 2.—The biggest capital and labor struggle England has ever had is brewing between the British railroads and their employees. The men have an organization including every branch of the railroad service and the companies have recently effected a sort of gentlemen's agreement binding every truck line and practically upon all the smaller roads in the country.

As a consequence, when the fight starts, the entire strength of the industry on each side will be involved.

The discontent of the employees with their pay and working conditions dates back to 1907. Conciliation boards have proved to be useless, and the unions are now drafting a new set of demands, upon the refusal of which a general walkout will be declared.

Athletic sports in connection with the Labor Day celebration commence at the new Exhibition Park at one o'clock and the G.T.P.R. will run a special train service to the grounds. The steamboat excursion to Fort Saskatchewan will attract a large number of fresh-air devotees, while the Preston Sunday school picnic also at the Fort will undoubtedly crowd the C.N.R. trains.

On Sunday afternoon at three o'clock, Rev. F. W. Patterson will speak to a meeting of men on "Some Ethical Aspects of the Labour Movement."

Commissioner and Mrs. Bouillon left for Banff on the midnite train last night. They are expected to return Monday evening.

Medals, Trophies, made to order.

PERILS OF NEWSPAPER LIFE

The perils and precariousness of journalism have been proverbial for years, but we have never known what it was to be reduced to the extremes reached by a newspaper man whose approach after death is said to have been:

One buttonhook.
One hatpin.
One lead pencil.
One belt buckle.
One Toy pistol.
Three large nails.
One large needle.
A writer so equipped must have looked on life in an ironical manner.

THE PRAYER OF A HORSE

There is food for reflection, resulting from one almost has visions of the girls a horse that has recently been posted in all the stables that house the police horses of New York:
To Thee, My Master, I Offer My Prayer:

Feed me, water me and care for me, and when the day's work is done provide me with shelter, a clean, dry bed and a stall wide enough for me to lie down in comfort. Talk to me. Your voice often means that I may serve you the more gladly and learn to love you. Do not jerk the reins and do not whip me when going up hill. Never strike, beat or kick me when I am being too tall. The wider the load the more I am honoured, reputation, and we are not far wrong, when we turn to each other and venture the guess that something about as small as a task was the beginning of the trouble.

About once a week some man whose business goes into to smash, wades into the river above Niagara and goes over the fall. I am probably someone in the city has an invalid chair which is no longer required for its original purpose.

Any horse that has this useful article, and would be glad to cheer the lot of another less favored, if they will kindly acquire one of their wishes, I shall be pleased to have it transferred to the young woman.

Yours sincerely,
THOS. R. TURNBULL,
Secretary of United 4ids.
Edmonton, Sept. 2, 1910.

What Others Say*A SAFE LEAD HERE

From the Vancouver Province.
The automobile may crowd the horse out of many fields of usefulness but as an article of diet it will never be a successful competitor. The consumption of horse flesh in France, according to figures gathered, is constantly on the increase. In Paris alone there are 6000 meat shops mainly in the poor quarters where horse flesh alone is sold. This consumption now exceeds 200,000 animals a year.

THE BOY WHO RAN AWAY

(From the Toronto Star)
A small boy was found by a policeman wandering about the Union Station the other day and taken to shelter to be cared for.

He explained that he lived near Oshawa, and having gone fishing without permission, was afraid to return home. So he hoarded a train ticket and struck out into the world he knew very little about.

It is curious at how early an age one is forced to reason badly. That boy could not have acted more foolishly had he been an adult. The sensible course on his part would have been to secure permission to go fishing, or having gone without it, to have faced the mark and taken his punishment. Instead he ran away, became the centre of a sensation, and must return home after all to face the consequences, not of a small fault only, but of a large one as well.

We repeat that he reasoned after the manner of many an adult who to escape admitting a ten cent foolishness commits a ten dollar one, and to dodge a reckoning for that plunges into a hundred or a thousand dollar complication. Every now and then the boy has the bad luck to damage his reputation, and we are not far wrong, when we turn to each other and venture the guess that something about as small as a task was the beginning of the trouble.

About once a week some man whose business goes into to smash, wades into the river above Niagara and goes over the fall. I am probably someone in the city has an invalid chair which is no longer required for its original purpose.

Any horse that has this useful article, and would be glad to cheer the lot of another less favored, if they will kindly acquire one of their wishes, I shall be pleased to have it transferred to the young woman.

IT IS TO LAUGH*AT THE SPRING.

I stole away the other day
From where the men were makin' hay
An' went and hid behind the ring
O' bushes that's around the spring.

The hayin' business might be nice,
If I could have it when the ice
Is on the bushes. I'll as not
I'd like to hay if 'twain't so hot.

But as it is, I always git
As far's I can away from it;

An' there beside the spring, you feel
A sort o' drowsy numbness steal

All over you, an' ev'ry sound
Is kin' o' turnin' you 'round;

The birds are singin', sleepy like;
The shadow makes you think it's night.

It seems like all the things that fly,
Was joinin' in a 'llyah.
I hadn't took a drink
Before my eyes began to blink,

An' after that, if you'd come round,
You'd find me sleepin' on the ground.

I could'n tell how long, but—well,
I just 'slept for quite a spell.

On come they asked me where I'd been.

"To git a drink," I says, an' then
They laughed, an' pa he muttered

"Why."

You must 's druk the river dry!"

But, all the same, I rather guess

The spring's the best place for me, unless.

They catch me there—for grandpa said

You've got to learn to work your head

Communications*AN APPEAL FOR AID

To the Editor of the Capital:
Dear Sir: There is a case of a young woman, now 18 years of age, who has been incapacitated from active life from her childhood, by an affliction which has denied her the use of her limbs, and which presents features we are confident, will command the interest and sympathy of a wide circle.

A chair was provided her in her girlhood, but she has long outgrown its real service, and through the years since, that chair has been the only means available for her to get out in the fresh air. It yields no comfort. She can neither sit up in it nor can she stand properly, owing to her condition demanding support, nor can she walk properly owing to being much too tall. The wife, however, is not able to purchase a new one.

She is probably someone in the city has an invalid chair which is no longer required for its original purpose.

It would be conferring a great boon on this young woman to present it as a gift. She is permanently unfit for ordinary life.

Any home that has this useful article, and would be glad to cheer the lot of another less favored, if they will kindly acquire one of their wishes, I shall be pleased to have it transferred to the young woman.

Yours sincerely,

THOS. R. TURNBULL,
Secretary of United 4ids.

RE GLEICHEN ELECTION.

Dear Sir—Appropries of the Bulletin's article yesterday morning; while

I appreciate the compliment of being quoted by Mr. A. J. McArthur as an authority on constitutional law, I object to my language being misinterpreted and misrepresented.

It is quite true that I departed from all recognized legal or Grittiness by refusing to "undergird my opponent, and recognized his personal merits and qualifications.

But while it is also true that I admitted that the representative of the Crown was justified in calling on an outsider to form a Government in the event of the Premier's resignation, I very distinctly gave my audience to understand that the circumstances surrounding the resignation of Premier Rutherford indicated a dirty political trick, and that there was no instance on record of a cabinet attempting to resist such a demand without an immediate dissolution of parliament and a general election.

I also deprecated in the strongest terms the resignation of judges who are appointed for life, with adequate salary, to engage in the arena of party politics—criticizing in this respect not only the late Chief Justice, but more especially Mr. Mitchell, who, as a good partisan, is elevated from the position of a District Court judge to the Attorney Generalship of the Province.

What Mr. Mitchell's qualifications to be nominated "Leader of the Bar" may be are perhaps known to the Premier—and the insurmountable gods!

Yours truly,

C. C. McCauley.

troyed the Kreyser Shingle Mill, and the Kootenay Engineering Works, Ltd., also a number of other houses. The fire was one of the worst and hottest Nelson ever had, destroying property worth $31,000.

There is no building in Nelson that could burn and be any hotter than the Kootenay Engineering Works, in which stood one of your No. 245 thin wall double door, Hall's Safe. The heat was so intense that it was not approachable nearer than thirty yards, lasting about two hours. The water thrown towards it, turned into steam and floated away on the breeze before reaching the burning flames. The dial was burned off, the bands twisted and the safe was half warped from the intense heat, but did the work it was built to do, for when opened by the manager of the Imperial Bank, Mr. J. M. Lay, the contents were in good order, which could hardly be expected any safer.

I would gladly recommend the Hall safe as to its fireproof qualities. Yours respectfully,

(Kreyser Shingle Mill Fire at Nelson, July 5, 1910)

I am in receipt of your favor dated July 5th, and in compliance with request thereon beg to inform you that I have visited the scene of fire mentioned above and made a thorough examination of the Halls Safe, which came through this fire. With pleasure I am able to inform you that the safe has apparently suffered no damage whatever. Interior is in perfect condition. Understand contents when removed showed no signs of damage. Am informed that this was an exceptionally hot fire, and it must be gratifying to learn that your safe stood the test so well.

HIGHEST STANDING*ANOTHER SWEEPING VICTORY FOR THE BELL IN BOTH SASKATCHEWAN AND ALBERTA

Calgary, Alta., Aug. 16th, 1910.

The Masters Piano Co., Edmonton, Alta.

Gentlemen,—

Please quote me your lowest cash price on two New Art Bell Pianos suitable for the Empire and Edmonton Opera House in your city.

I am putting in Bell Pianos exclusively in all my theatres at Saskatoon, Regina, Lethbridge and Calgary, and prefer them to any other maker, as I have carefully investigated all the others and find the Bell wears better, requires less attention and pleases a greater number of musicians than any other piano built in Canada.

Trusting that we will be able to make satisfactory arrangements and awaiting your reply, I remain,

Yours very respectfully,

W. B. SHERMAN, Manager.

As a result of Mr. Sherman's enquiry, we sold a fine concert size Bell Piano for the new Empire Theatre. Formerly the Edmonton Opera House, and in a short time we will place a similar style in the Empire.

New Furs

(Second Floor)

The skins used in our furs are the richest, most luxurious and finest to be obtained. They carry a sense of luxury and genuine warmth that is most desirable.

Our direct connection with the most important trapping posts and fur centres of the world enables us to purchase our pelts at a tremendous saving, hence our prices are the lowest quoted for furs of the dependable quality.

For Jackets, Fur Lined Coats, and small furs of all kinds and styles.

New Corsets for Fall

NEW ROYAL WORCESTER CORSET.

(In our New Corset Department, Second Floor)

Adjusto Corsets are the final result of years of experimenting, searching tests and careful study. They have positively never been equalled.

Do they not fit perfectly and perfect of contour in a smart, durable, shape-retaining corset? Wear one of the Adjusto models.

Just a single sliding flat buckle and band on each side instantly tightened or released without removing the corset. You cannot do this with any other corset.

Up to date in style and quality, the full realization of perfect comfort and supreme quality in material and health and contentment.

Stout women more than any other type of figure require specially designed corsets to meet their individual needs. The Adjusto will prove a revelation.

The redoubtable Adjusto (as featured especially in the Adjusto) are of inestimable value. With their aid all excess flesh is naturally and distributed proportionately.

Over the Adjusto your new gown can be fitted as smoothly as a kid glove, and you will marvel at the wonderful transformation and improvement.

Let our expert corseters advise you on the choice of corset for your new fall costume.

J. H. FARRELL TAKES A HAND

Decides That Calgary-Edmonton Fiasco Be Decided by a League Meeting

Lethbridge, Sept. 3.—President Eckstrom of the Western Canada Baseball League, received the following telegram from J. H. Farrell, secretary of the National Board of Arbitration regarding the appeal against his decision giving Edmonton the game on Tuesday last by default from Calgary:

AUBURN, N.Y., Sept. 2, 1910.—"Calgary requests decision be withheld until affidavits are prepared and forwarded. The decision of this office is that the whole matter be referred to a board of directors of the Western Canada League for immediate action on appeal from the president's decision of the Calgary club, then either side may appeal to the board at its fall meeting."

DOESN'T EXCUSE THEM

"The Albertan says: "Here is another thing. It wasn't Bill Carney who authorized the postponement of the game to Tuesday, but four of the directors, Messrs. Middleton, Savage, Johnson and Devenish, four well-known Calgary business men, who looked over the grounds, thought they were unfit, decided to postpone the game, and the game was rescheduled for extra games on the day following. That places a new light upon this phase of the controversy."

Well, if Messrs. Middleton, Savage, Johnson and Devenish examined the diamond on Tuesday and declared it "unfit to play on," there are a number of Edmontonians who do not value their opinion very highly.

The genial Bill Morew and his star sputhaw Heinrich will probably spend the winter months in the Wheat City, where the sputhaw started a cigar business under the name of Morew and Heinrich. Both men are very popular with the Brandon sportsmen.

Isabel has been recalled to Sioux City, and left last Saturday night.

RESULTS ON THE TENNIS COURTS

Many Sets Were Completed Before Rain Put Stop to Sport—Draws for Today

The tennis tournament which began yesterday on the courts of the Edmonton Tennis Club at 9:30 a.m. and which continued throughout the day until the rain came at 4:30 so spoilt, is was avowed by everyone to be a great success. Twenty matches were played off on the three courts, which were all in splendid condition, and some of the best tennis that Edmonton has seen as yet was witnessed by the spectators.

There was a large crowd of enthusiasts players and onlookers who followed the games with interest during the day, and a number of visitors from Calgary took part, amongst them being Miss Toole, Miss Sparrow and the Masters, A. and J. Tool.

One of the most interesting matches of the day was that between Mr. Dickson and Mr. Waugh, in the gentlemen's open singles. They were well matched, and after a long and vigorously contested game, which was watched with interest by a large number of people it resulted in favor of Mr. Dickens.

In the ladies' matches both Miss Toole and Miss Davies were in good form and won their games. They will meet in the open singles today. During the afternoon Mrs. Spratt, Mrs. Jones and Miss Potter presided over tea table assisted by a number

LAUER CLOSES HIS WESTERN TRIP*AT THE EMPIRE

Mr. William Sherwood will open the present musical season with a piano recital in the Empire Theatre on Thursday next, September 8th.

Mr. Sherwood is acknowledged to be not only America's greatest pianist, but also one of the greatest pianists of the world. An American born, he has lived in Germany for many years, being the son of Liszt's favorite pupil. He is the only American pianist who has been invited to play with the leading German orchestras, and so great has been his success in that country, that he has played Beethoven's "Emperor Concerto" with full orchestra no less than six times in Berlin alone, and his playing of the Grieg Concerto in Hamburg brought him an ovation seldom awarded any pianist. With Mr. Sherwood comes Miss Virginia Listemann, an operatic soprano of whom the New York critics speak in the most glowing terms. Among other engagements she has appeared as Marguerite in Gounod's opera "Faust," with the Chicago Opera Company.

These two artists should receive the liberal patronage of all who care for the best in music.

AT THE LYCEUM

Despite its belated arrival, the brand new musical comedy "The Hindoo Doctor," will be produced on Monday at the Lyceum Theatre, will offer a welcome opportunity for Sherman's Musical Comedy Co.

"The Hindoo Doctor" is an exceptionally clever piece of work. The work of a competent stage director will be in evidence throughout the entire performance. In the production Tom Beeson will direct, and the droll role of an Irish "Tad" which is an Irish part of exceptional merit. Mr. Beeson has his own peculiar style of humor and never fails to amuse. The company are all placed in good comedy parts and with the ability they have already shown will make the production the biggest laugh maker in the entire repertoire under Mr. Beeson's direction.

MAGI

THE WATER OF QUALITY

EDMONTON WINE & SPIRIT CO.
Agents
Edmonton Alberta

At least half the secret of the snappy fresh taste of MAGI Water lies in its bottling. It is bottled only at the Spring—in fact, it is bottled in bulk and from the instant it gushes forth from below bed-rock until you open the bottle, it remains as fresh as ever the air and much less anything else, ever touches it. Even its journey from bed-rock to bottle is performed through glass, silver and nickel pipes.

Every bottle is washed, sterilized with live steam and then washed again with live steam. This is done by our inspectors. And the cleaning is done by hand. No machine touches it.

Remember, MAGI Water is THE Caledonia Water that comes from THE Caledonia Springs, which are right down to the rock itself. MAGI is the only water that comes from the original spring—there comes from the original spring—there that have been known to white men for over a century.

MAGI may be bought from coast to coast, plain or carbonated. It is sold in cans, bottles, half-gallons at cafes, hotels, bars, restaurants, drug stores, grocery and cafe cars and by your grocer by the bottle or the case.

SATAN SANDERSON

He stumbled to a chair and sat down in his favorite right. He thought of the gobbed state in which he lay below of his own unhappy adventure of the night. How could he tell what he had done—what he might do? Minutes went by as he sat motionless, his mind caught in strange kinks of pictures that flew past him into the window. At length he rose and went to the window. Far down the hillside a faint line through the mist spanned the gulch bottom. A groan burst from his lips.

"Well, I'm the hypocrite f---er," he said aloud. "Gold has been stolen there in the past again and again. Some was stolen two nights ago. How do I know but that I am the thief?"

Was that what Pendergast had meant by "the little old man"?

"I've got a mind to stake out a claim."

"Who's the lucky chum?" some one asked.

"Just below this ridge," the doctor replied. "It is called the 'Little Day' master."

The name caught her ear. The Little

Paysandu—Hog's claim! That instant she thought she heard David Street calling. She turned and ran quickly up the long flight to his open door.

About Town

The body of the late B. H. Windell, who was killed by an accident in P. Anderson's brick yard on Monday, will be shipped to his former home at New York Mills, Minn., via C. N. R. this evening.

On Tuesday next, September 6, the Ladies' Aid of Westminster Presbyterian Church will be doing business at Mr. Keil's Garage, in the south corner of 11th and Sutherland. They are to have a percentage of the total sales made in the store that day and will have a committee of clerks there to serve all customers.

The Rev. T. F. Knudson will preach on Sunday afternoon in the Lutheran Church, and on Sunday evening will give an English address in Dreamland Theatre, Jasper east. Mr. Knudson's home is in Iowa, and he studied and graduated at Red Wing Seminary, Red Wing, Minn., where he was ordained last spring. He will work among the Scandinavians in this city.

The blessing of prayer is not a reward for telling the omniscient all about our neighbors.

Jack! How is it that Mrs. Brown can get a quiet horse and cannot get one safe for me. Well my dear, Brown deals at Horner's Livery and you phone 1524 and order one. Oh, Jack, What a dear.
